INTRODUCTION

THE TALLULAH AWARDS MISSION

The Tallulah Awards recognizes, honors, and celebrates student achievement in high school musical theatre programs in Alabama and spotlights the importance of arts education in schools.

BROADWAY THEATRE LEAGUE MISSION

The purpose of the Broadway Theatre League of Huntsville is to provide professional live theatre for citizens of the Tennessee Valley area. Broadway Theatre League also strives to offer a well-rounded educational and cultural program to students of the Tennessee Valley through the Student Outreach Program.

ABOUT BROADWAY THEATRE LEAGUE

Broadway Theatre League of Huntsville (BTL) was founded in 1959 by the Business Professional Women's Club with single evening performances of national touring Broadway Shows. Performances were presented at Huntsville High School through 1974. In 1975, BTL moved to the brand new Von Braun Center Concert Hall and has been presenting shows there ever since. In 1993, BTL began presenting five show performance weekends and now presents both full eight performance weeks and five performance weekends.

BTL STUDENT OUTREACH PROGRAM

Founded in 2005, the program provides an educational theatre experience that includes a classroom visit in the weeks leading up to the show and a post-visit project. Each year, BTL presents at least two Student Outreach shows. Each includes two student/school performances during the day and a free community show in the evening, welcoming nearly 6,000 people per show. The Student Outreach Program also provides workshops for high school theatre students. These workshops are taught by cast members of the national touring Broadway shows when they are in Huntsville. Each workshop is for up to 40 students and includes the workshop, pizza, and a ticket to see the show.

ADJUDICATION

ADJUDICATORS

Broadway Theatre League will select and train a team of performing arts professionals from across the southeast with backgrounds in education, music, theatre, dance, design, production, and related fields to serve as adjudicators to evaluate school productions. There will be specialized feedback that is focused on uplifting strengths and suggesting future areas of improvement. Theatre, performing and the arts are subjective, so we encourage teachers and students to use what is useful to their own growth.

Adjudicators will be required to attend a meeting that will provide an extensive orientation and training of the program and evaluation process. They will be provided with a rubric to use as a basis for their ratings and feedback. During adjudication, rating will consider each school's unique resources and challenges. Information provided by schools in the Intent to Participate and Pre-Adjudication documents, such as Director's Notes, budget information, facilities information and other information will all be considered by adjudicators.

Awards Criteria emphasize student achievement – not size, budget, or elaborateness of a production. The focus is on storytelling, creativity, clarity, and community.

ADJUDICATION PROCESS

- Adjudicators will not have a perceived conflict of interest or bias at the schools for which they are adjudicating.
- Five (5) adjudicators will evaluate each school.
- Adjudication will only take place during a public performance, not a dress rehearsal or a school show
- If a show is double cast, the school directors must specify the cast they want to be adjudicated and when those performances will take place.
- If a show is double cast and both casts are being considered for The Tallulah Awards, the school directors must provide a schedule of when each cast will be performing.
- Each school will be notified of the date(s) on which Adjudicators will be adjudicating their show.
- On each respective adjudication date, two (2) complimentary reserved tickets must be held at the school's box office under "Broadway Theatre League" for each of the 5 adjudicators. Please make sure these seats are in an appropriate location with clear sightlines to the stage. Adjudicators should not be seated together.
- Schools will not indicate who the judges are to the students or public or label seat holds.

- Adjudicators may be scheduled at different performances, but BTL will make a best effort to have most or all adjudicators at the same performance.
- Following an adjudicated performance, each attending adjudicator will individually complete an official adjudication form. Each adjudicator will include detailed feedback and ratings for the award categories that are adjudicated. Adjudicators may provide feedback for all categories – even those for which a school is not eligible for.
- Schools should not expect any oral critiques or feedback following a performance attended by an adjudicator.
- Adjudicators will individually enter their respective ratings and feedback into an online system and submit their information to Broadway Theatre League staff to be compiled into one document.
- Best Actor and Best Actress nominees will be selected based on scores. It is possible that additional discussion will have to take place with adjudicators to select nominees. Best Actor and Actor winners will be based on a final adjudication round plus their initial adjudication in the production.
- All results will be calculated and kept sealed by Broadway Theatre League until the awards ceremony.
- Broadway Theatre League will send compiled packets to each school after The Tallulah Awards that will include adjudicator comments.
- All data is property of Broadway Theatre League.

ADJUDICATION FOR TECHNICAL AWARDS

The Tallulah Awards values your backstage as much as onstage!

- There will be a designated technical adjudicator that will observe your show from backstage and in the house. This person will spend Act 1 backstage with your crew observing and then will be in the house for Act 2, including checking in with your sound booth at some point and may watch some of the show from there.
- The tech adjudicator will arrive slightly more than 30 minutes before the show starts. They want to be there early so they can have the ability to be onstage prior to house opening. This allows them time to walk around the stage in better light and more freely. This judge will need to be escorted backstage by a student director or stage manager. Ideally, this student will give a quick tour and explain the show. The technical adjudicators are experienced in technical areas and know how to stay out of your way when the show starts.
- Schools competing in technical categories (scenic design, costume design, lighting design and/or stage management) should have a student from each of these areas ready to show their associated books/graphics and be ready to discuss these items. It would be best if the books can be left with the adjudicator to look at backstage on his/her own time as well.
- The technical feedback may be helpful for schools when asking school administration for upgrades or improvement on their facilities. If you have a specific area you'd like the adjudicator to address, please let us know!

Questions? Contact us!

- There is a checklist at the back of this handbook that gives you an idea of what the technical adjudicator will be paying attention to.

adjudicators from that production. If a school believes an adjudicator did not attend as planned, please reach out to Broadway Theatre League.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

If weather is inclement and/or a state of emergency exists in the area of the performing school for an adjudicated performance, it is required that the school contact BTL (Kip and Lisa) as soon as possible. BTL will notify adjudicators of the change. Please notify BTL of any changes and decisions regarding your adjudicated performance. BTL will make every effort to re-schedule adjudicators for another performance.

ADJUDICATOR ASSIGNMENTS

As adjudicator assignments are made, every attempt is made to ensure non-partiality on the part of the adjudicators. Adjudicators with relationships, either professional or personal, are not assigned to evaluate at that school. The Tallulah Awards will make every effort to send Adjudicators skilled in various areas of theatre production to each school and will make every attempt to rotate the pool in subsequent years. Broadway Theatre League makes the final decision in these matters.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

Directors are asked for a statement highlighting the unique aspects that make their departments/programs/productions special. This is included with the Pre-Adjudication Form. This will mean something different for every school and adjudicators are asked to consider this statement as part of their score for the overall production. We encourage you to include anything you want adjudicators to take into consideration. This is up to the director/school/student's discretion with what they are comfortable sharing but can include anything from information about the facilities, budget, timeline, support from community, support from school, challenges, adversity, etc.

ADJUDICATOR FEEDBACK/RATINGS

The purpose of The Tallulah Awards is to uplift, celebrate and provide growth and learning opportunities for theatre productions and programs in schools. Adjudicators will be asked to provide detailed and constructive feedback with the goal to uplift and also assist with continuous improvement of the program. Schools will receive a rating and descriptive, constructive written feedback for each evaluation area. The purpose of the written feedback is to focus on growth. It is an evaluation of current work plus areas to think about for future productions. Schools will never be compared to one another.

Accomplished: 75-89% of the time (consistently)
Established: 60-70% of the time (usually)
Developing: 40-60% of the time (sometimes)
Emerging: Below 40% of the time (rarely)

LEVEL	MEANING
OUTSTANDING 90-100% of the time Always	This level shows a high degree of professionalism, talent and artistry. The performances in this level are nuanced and memorable.
ACCOMPLISHED 75-89% of the time Consistently	This level demonstrates a strong skill within the area being evaluated. There is a noticeable training and experience evidenced and noted. These performances exceed expectation at the high school level.
ESTABLISHED 60-75% of the time Usually	This is an established/solid high school level performance. All criteria were met and the story at hand was told in a clear way. This is the expectation we begin every evaluation with for every performance. This level indicates consistent, dedicated work.
